DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 2. Claims 9, 15-16, 19 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kormos et al. '890.

Regarding claims 9, 15-16, 19 and 23 Kormos et al.'890 teach a system of medical procedures, the system comprising:

a locator attachable to a patient, having at least 3 fiducial markers thereon (col. 3, lines 31-44);

a medical device for performing diagnostic imaging or a therapeutic medical procedure on a patient (col. 3, line 46-59);

a sensing subsystem for sensing the positions of the fiducial markers when the patient is in a position for performing the medical procedure using the medical device (col. 4, lines 4-27);

and

wherein the locator has a registration portion for registration with a portion of a patient's body, the locator being mechanically free such that the patient is positionable without applying forces to the locator during the patient positioning, and wherein the locator is molded to fit external features of a specific patient (col. 3, lines 3-34).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 4. Claims 1-8, 10-14, and 17-18, 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kormos et al.'890 in view of McLaurin'117.

Kormos et al.'890 teach the use of thermoplastic mesh material with markers affixed on this material, placed over the area of interest for imaging guided surgery. Kormos et al.'890 do not teach the use of this material for repeated use in imaging and therapy, and wherein the area of interest is the head/face. In the same field of endeavor, McLaurin'117 teaches the use of this material for repeated use in imaging and therapy, and wherein the area of interest is the head/face (see Abstract).

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time that the invention was made to have used the thermoplastic mesh material as taught by Kormos et al.'890 in subsequent procedures or at a later time as taught by McLaurin'117 in order to facilitate subsequent visits for treatment (see McLaurin'117 col. 2, lines 25-51). Furthermore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time that the invention was made, to have used this thermoplastic material over the area of interest as demonstrated by both Kormos et al.'890 and McLaurin'117.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Cosman et al.'541 teaches a head band for frameless stereotactic registration.
